DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 8/15/2005 has been entered.

Claims 73-75, 88, 89, 98 and 99 were canceled (8/15/2005).

Claims 1-24 and 28-72 were previously withdrawn from consideration as directed to non-elected inventions.

Claims 24-27, 76-87, 90-97, 100-102 as amended and new claims 103-112 (filed 8/15/2005) are under examination and subject to election of species requirement.

Election/Restrictions

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

1) naturally-occurring mutant of Pseudomonas strain AN5 including particular strain AN5rif (AGAL Accession No. NM 00/09624); and

2) genetically engineered mutants of Pseudomonas strain AN5 including strains comprising transposon, cosmid or multi-copy plasmid.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

The instant pending claims, that are presently under examination, are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

1) Claims 25, 76, 90, 91, 100, 101, 103, 104, 107, 108, 111 and 112, drawn to a naturally-occurring mutant of Pseudomonas strain AN5 including particular strain AN5rif (AGAL Accession No. NM 00/09624); and

2) Claims 26, 27, 105, 106, 109 and 110, drawn to a genetically engineered mutant of Pseudomonas strain AN5 including strains comprising transposon, cosmid or multi-copy plasmid.

The following claim(s) are presently generic: 24, 77-87, 92-97, 102 and 104.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

This application contains claims drawn to more than one of combinations of categories of inventions such as more than one product, process specially adapted for the manufacture of said product and process of using said product. In the instant case, claims are drawn to two products that are derived or made by two different specially adapted manufacturing processes such as a process for selection of spontaneous mutants and a targeted genetic engineering process . Thus, unity of inventions is lacking. See MPEP 1850. 37 CFR 1.475.

37 CFR 1.475. Unity of invention before the International Searching Authority, the International Preliminary Examining Authority and during the national stage.

(a) An international and a national stage application shall relate to one invention only or to a group of inventions so linked as to form a single general inventive concept ("requirement of unity of invention "). Where a group of inventions is claimed in an application, the requirement of unity of invention shall be fulfilled only when there is a technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features. The expression "special technical features " shall mean those technical features that define a contribution which each of the claimed inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art.

(b) An international or a national stage application containing claims to different categories of invention will be considered to have unity of invention if the claims are drawn only to one of the following combinations of categories:

- (1) A product and a process specially adapted for the manufacture of said product; or
- (2) A product and a process of use of said product; or
- (3) A product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and a use of the said product; or
- (4) A process and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process; or
- (5) A product, a process specially adapted for the manufacture of the said product, and an apparatus or means specifically designed for carrying out the said process.

(c) If an application contains claims to more or less than one of the combinations of categories of invention set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, unity of invention might not be present.

(d) If multiple products, processes of manufacture or uses are claimed, the first invention of the category first mentioned in the claims of the application and the first recited invention of each of the other categories related thereto will be considered as the main invention in the claims, see PCT Article 17(3)(a) and § 1.476(c).

(e) The determination whether a group of inventions is so linked as to form a single general inventive concept shall be made without regard to whether the inventions are claimed in separate claims or as alternatives within a single claim.

Applicants are advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicants are reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
